BENEFICIAL OWNER INFORMATION:

A beneficial owner is an individual who ultimately owns or controls (directly or indirectly) the client. Ownership for the purposes of determining a beneficial owner means 25 per cent or more of the voting control. As Associations have no owner it is necessary to identify the key Office Holder/s that is/are Senior Managing Officials who make/s, or participates in making, decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part, of the business of the client or who has the capacity to affect significantly the financial standing of the client.

For example these key officeholders may be the Chairperson, Clergy, Treasurer, Secretary, or other Official that can exercise day to day authority in relation to financial matters of the organisation, whether or not they are a signatory to the account. Key Officeholders are usually each recorded as a 'Responsible Person' with the ACNC and published on the ACNC website. These should be based on the leadership positions of the Association as detailed in the Constitution. Refer www.acnc.gov.au/charity

The definition of 'control' includes whether the control is exerted by means of constitutions, trusts, agreements, arrangements, understandings, or practices and whether or not the individual has control based on legal or equitable rights. It includes where an individual can exercise control through making decisions about financial and operating policies.

5.
