Pricing Notes

Merchant Service Fee (MSF)

MSF includes the following:

NAB Service Fee

This is a fixed rate per transaction. This is intended to cover NAB's costs (excluding interchange) and required return in providing the service to you. This fee is charged as a percentage of net sales ($) volume of all MasterCard, Visa and UnionPay International cards processed and is charged monthly to your nominated account. This fee is fixed and does not fluctuate from month to month.

Card Issuer Interchange Fee

The Card Issuer Fee is paid by one financial institution to another. For Visa, MasterCard and UnionPay International cards, the acquirer (the merchant's financial institution, in this case NAB) pays the Interchange to the 'issuer' (the financial institution whose name is on the credit card). The fee per transaction varies depending upon the type of card, type of transaction, and the method used to accept each transaction. This fee is charged as a percentage of net sales ($) volume of all MasterCard, Visa cards and UnionPay International cards processed and is charged monthly to your nominated account.

UnionPay Interchange and Service Fees

For current interchange rates and UnionPay service fees, refer to nab.com.au/UPI

Interchange rates

Both Visa and MasterCard display the Card Issuer Interchange rates for the different types of credit cards on their websites. Please refer to the below links provided to determine what the specific rates are for the different types of cards. The Card Issuer Fee for international cards (credit cards issued outside of Australia) are not publicly available but will be displayed on your Merchant Statement.
